PROCLAMATION AND RESPONSE

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Colossians 1:15-20 NRSV

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation, for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

GOSPEL LESSON

Luke 10:38-42 NRSV

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at Jesus’s feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks, so she came to him and asked, “Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her, then, to help me.” But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things, but few things are needed—indeed only one. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.”

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Keep God's Light, by Mark Patterson

Eben Trobaugh, drums

Keep God's light before you; keep God's truth beside you;
Keep God's hope to guide you everywhere you go.
Keep God's peace within you; feel God's strength defend you;
Let God's love begin to fill your thirsty soul.

Hold on in times of sorrow; hold on through days of despair;
Even in the darkest valley God will always be there. Refrain

Look now to days of gladness: God's light still shines the way
Never fading, never failing, teaching us as we pray. Refrain
