PROCLAMATION AND RESPONSE

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Isaiah 55:8-13 NRSVUE

For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven
and do not return there until they have watered the earth,
making it bring forth and sprout,
giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth;
it shall not return to me empty,
but it shall accomplish that which I purpose
and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

For you shall go out in joy
and be led back in peace;
the mountains and the hills before you
shall burst into song,
and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress;
instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle,
and it shall be to the Lord for a memorial,
for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

Ashlea Cox

What is our prayer for these children?

Our prayer is that our children will grow up to be like Jesus:
strong, loving, brave, and full of grace and truth;
and that we will help them.

Following the presentation, children in 4K through 1st grade are invited to attend Little Church in the Riser Room on the third floor of the Leisure Ministries Building.

ANTHEM

Total Praise, by Dave Williamson

Sanctuary Choir

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Romans 8:18-25 NRSVUE

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God, for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its enslavement to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning together as it suffers together the pains of labor, and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope, for who hopes for what one already sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

The Word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.

MORNING PRAYER

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The pastor offers the morning prayer.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

UMC Social Principles

Flowing out of our Wesleyan tradition, the UMC Social Principles are crafted "to speak to issues in the contemporary world from a sound biblical and theological foundation." They serve as a call to faithfulness and social engagement – offering insight into what participating in the establishment of God's kingdom on earth might look like. Please join the TRUMC Church & Society core team for a study in July as we explore the UMC Social Principles on Sundays July 9, 16, 23, and 30 at 9am.

On Sunday, July 9 at 9am in the Dining Room we are honored and excited to have Rev. Susan Henry-Crowe kicking off our study with an introduction into the development, place and purpose of the Social Principles. Rev. Henry-Crowe recently retired after serving 8 years as General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society in Washington, DC and we are grateful to her sharing with us her experience and passion in advocating for justice.

On Sundays July 16, 23, 30 at 9am, small groups will meet in various classrooms around the TRUMC main building to more deeply explore and discuss three individual UMC Social Principles: education, poverty, and human sexuality. Each topic will be discussed each Sunday in separate classrooms allowing you to rotate between all three or choose the topics of most interest for the Sundays you're present. (Location for each Social Principle discussion TBA but will remain consistent from week to week.)

This summer make your July one of learning and discussion by joining the TRUMC Church & Society core team as we study and discuss the UMC Social Principles. We look forward to seeing you.
