*APOSTLES' CREED

UMH 881

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of Heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead and buried;
The third day he rose from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
And sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the wicked and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

PROCLAMATION AND RESPONSE

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Romans 6:12-23 NRSVUE

Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal bodies, so that you obey their desires. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that, if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you who were slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted and that you, having been set free from sin, have become enslaved to righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and lawlessness, leading to even more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what fruit did you then gain from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the fruit you have leads to sanctification, and the end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Merciful God,
we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church.
We have not done your will,
we have broken your law,
we have rebelled against your love,
we have not loved our neighbors,
and we have not heard the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray.
Free us for joyful obedience,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All pray in silence.

Leader to people:

Hear the good news:

Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

And lead us not into temptation,

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

UMC Social Principles

We are pleased, honored and excited to welcome Rev. Dr. Susan Henry-Crowe to kick off a July study of the UMC Social Principles on Sunday, July 9 at 9am in the Dining Room. Rev. Henry-Crowe recently retired after serving 8 years as General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society in Washington, DC. She'll be sharing with us from a lifetime of experience and leadership in promoting the Social Principles as a guide to how living into the Gospel can be expressed in our social interactions and institutions.

Rev Henry-Crowe is a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference, serving pastoral appointments in the upstate early in her career. For over 20 years she served as Dean of the Chapel of Religious Life at Emory University. Now, we welcome her back to SC as she shares with us her passion in advocating for social justice and peace.

On Sundays July 16, 23, 30 at 9am, small groups will meet in three classrooms in the main building to more deeply explore and discuss three individual UMC Social Principles: education, poverty, and human sexuality. Each topic will be discussed each Sunday allowing you to rotate between all three or choose the topics of most interest for the Sundays you're present.

Human Sexuality – Room 110

Education – Room 112

Poverty – Room 212
