PRELUDE

How Great Thou Art, setting by David Nevue

Randy Moore, piano

*CALL TO WORSHIP

People of God, remember what Jesus taught us: The birds of the air neither sow nor reap, Still, God our Creator feeds them.

The lilies of the field neither toil nor spin,
Still, God our Creator clothes them in beauty.

If God cares for the birds and the flowers, then God will care for us.

Let us seek first the kingdom of God and God's righteousness.

God will provide all the rest.

HYMN

"I Sing the Almighty Power of God"

UMH 152

APOSTLES' CREED

UMH 881

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of Heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead and buried;
The third day he rose from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
And sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

THE GLORIA PATRI

UMH 71

"Glory Be to the Father"
Glory be to the Father
and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Matthew 6:24-34 NRSVUE

"No one can serve two masters, for a slave will either hate the one and love the other or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth. Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by worrying can add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ For it is the gentiles who seek all these things, and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today’s trouble is enough for today.”

The Word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And lead us not into temptation,

the glory, forever. Amen.

“On Purpose: Finding God’s Voice in Your Passion”

We are hungry for a sense of purpose, direction, and calling in our lives. That’s as basic an ingredient to the human experience as they come. We want to be part of something bigger than ourselves. We want to participate in something that has eternal merit and lasting impact. We do not want to live a shallow, hollow existence. We yearn for deeper meaning, for deeper purpose within our lives. We want to be more than we are.

In On Purpose: Finding God’s Voice in Your Passion, authors Magrey deVega, Sam McGlothlin, Jevon Caldwell-Gross, and Susan Robb help us see God’s purpose for our lives, how to open ourselves to God’s voice, and how to take the first or next step to follow God’s call. Reading this book and exploring life choices alongside others, individuals will learn how to channel their passions, hear God’s voice, and live the life they were meant to live.

Will you support the Kairos Prison Ministry?

God's Special Time

Pastor David will serve on the Kairos Prison Ministry Team at Broad River Correctional Institution. The dates are October 26-29, and he needs your prayers and support. The team will minister to 42 inmates during this time who need the love of Jesus.

You can assist the team in many ways, such as baking cookies, volunteering to pray, and donating money. It takes about 10,000 cookies, 72 hours of prayer, and $6000 to cover the cost, among other needed items, to make this weekend a success for all, especially the inmates. Pastor David's goal is to get as many Sunday School Classes, UMW Circles, UMM, and other groups or individuals as possible involved. Ask about how you can sign up to pray for the inmates during this important time of serving and ministry.

To share a gift, please make your checks payable to – Kairos of South Carolina – Memo “Broad River Correction Institution”. All who feel called to help in any way, Please contact Pastor David for more details and information.

TRUMC Book Club

The TRUMC Book Club will meet at 6:30 pm on Monday, November 6 in the parlor. The group will discuss Hiroshima, by John Hersey.

On August 6, 1945, Hiroshima was destroyed by the first atom bomb ever dropped on a city. This book, John Hersey's journalistic masterpiece, tells what happened on that day. Told through the memories of survivors, this timeless, powerful and compassionate document has become a classic "that stirs the conscience of humanity" (The New York Times).

Almost four decades after the original publication of this celebrated book, John Hersey went back to Hiroshima in search of the people whose stories he had told. His account of what he discovered about them is now the eloquent and moving final chapter of Hiroshima.
